Dear Mr. Frankel:

I appreciate your taking time while on leave from your Moscow post to read my speech of 8 April 1959, and to tell me in your letter of 30 May that you consider it eminently sound.

Your remarks about my brother were most kind and thoughtful.

It was a pleasure to see you when you were in Washington recently. If you are here again before you return to Moscow with your wife and your new-born son, let Colonel Grogan know sufficiently in advance so that an appointment can be made with me to again see you.

Kind personal regards,

Sincerely,

SIGNED
